THE ESCAPED BOODLER.

HABEAS CORPUS PROCEEDINGS FOR THE RELEASE OF DR. ST. JOHN.

No Application Has Yet Been Made to the State Department for the Extradition of McGarigle—The Fugitive in Ontario, and Will Fight Extradition.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Dr. St. John, who was unable to secure satisfactory bondmen yesterday, filed a petition for habeas corpus in the circuit court late in the afternoon.
Judge Tukey issued the writ, making it returnable forthwith. The petition sets out that the charge of conspiracy on which the doctor was arrested is merely a misdemeanor, and only punishable by a fine not to exceed $500, or imprisonment of not more than one year in the county jail.

He waived examination before Justice White, who ordered that the petitioner be held in the sum of $20,000 for his appearance to the criminal court. On his offering a bond with D. B. Fisk and others it was refused, and the justice issued a mittimus, and St. John was delivered into the custody of the sheriff. He claimed that the bail was excessive, and that he was entitled to have a reasonable and proper bail fixed by the court.

States Attorney Grinnell said that it was customary to have two bondsmen, but that in this case he had no objection to accepting Mr. Fisk alone. Judge Tukey decided to release the doctor in the $20,000 bail, with Mr. Fisk as security, until 2 o'clock this afternoon, when the question of the excess of bail could be argued.

The Boodler in Ontario.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—A Daily News special from Wyoming, Ont., says: McGarigle, the boodler, arrived in Wyoming at 1 o'clock Monday morning, having been driven from Sarnia, sixteen miles distant, by a livery stable keeper from that place. They stopped at the Central hotel here, kept by Jacob Rogers, and ordered lodging and breakfast, but McGarigle did not register or make his identity known. The landlord suspected by the actions of his guest that he was trying to evade justice, and on making inquiries of the person who drove him here, learned of his identity. He retired at 1:30 and slept until 6 a. m., when he took breakfast, tendering the landlord a $10 American bank note from which to deduct his bill.

The landlord expressed his doubts as to its being genuine, when McGarigle jocularly remarked that it was such as those that the grand institutions of the United States were founded upon. He then went to the railway station, purchased a ticket for London and boarded the 6 a. m. train for that city. He made no effort to hide his identity, and was recognized by both the conductor and brakeman of the train by his resemblance to a picture of him they had seen.

He stated to a party with whom he was conversing that it was his intention to return to Chicago as soon as he got the affair settled. He appeared in no way reticent about talking over the matter, and did not seem to have any desire to conceal himself from the public eye. He still wears the same clothes, and wears his whiskers and mustache in the same shape as when he left Chicago.

The McGarigle Case.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—A special from Washington says: No application has been received at the state department for the extradition of McGarigle. The attorney general, when asked touching an application for extradition, said no decision could be made until the question was formally presented.
Should a request be made it would be carefully considered and a demand made for the apprehension and return of the fugitive if such a demand could be made under the law and treaty stipulations.

Other officials at the attorney general's office, while declining to discuss the question of extradition, are disposed to think that the methods employed by McGarigle in effecting his escape from Chicago and passage to Canada will have no bearing on the case.
A sovereign nation has full police jurisdiction over its waters and harbors, and may refuse clearance papers to a vessel that has violated the law, and that while thus within police jurisdiction may take from such vessel, under due process of law, a person charged with a criminal act; but a demand for the return of an offender who had escaped from the custody of the law by means of a foreign trading vessel, could not be sustained solely on that account.

Will Fight Extradition.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—A Daily News special from St. Catharines, Ont., says: It is reported that McGarigle, acting on the recommendation of Dr. St. John, will arrive in St. Catharines to-day, and employ Lawyer F. K. St. John to conduct the defense, in case an attempt at arrest and extradition is made. Lawyer St. John resides in St.
Catharines, and is a brother of the now noted Chicago physician.

THE CHINESE BANK SCHEME.

Such an Enterprise on Foot, but Gould is Not in It.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The report that Jay Gould proposed to give the slow-going progress of China a big boost by introducing telephonic communication and establishing a great bank there, that was not only to do a regular banking business, but was to take charge of all the government finances and control impending railroad and telegraph enterprises in the Mongolian kingdom, was denied yesterday by his son George.

George F. Seward, ex-minister to China, said to a reporter that he was convinced that American capital would ultimately "open up" China.

Russell & Co., No. 60 Wall street, do a large proportion of the banking business between this country and China, and Manager Hanna was asked what he knew of the report. "I am sorry," he said, "that publicity has been given it, because premature publication often knocks these things in the head.
At the same time, I am free to admit that such an enterprise as announced is now on foot. Mr. Gould is not in it, however. I am not at liberty to tell you who are its promoters, except that we are ourselves interested to a certain extent."

Knights of Pythias Encampment.

Bloomington Ill. Aug. 3.—The fifth an-neal encampment of the Illinois brigade of the Knights of Pythias opened here this morning with a full representation from all sections of the state. The morning was devoted to a business session, and the reports presented showed that the organization had largely increased in membership during the past year. It was announced that the question of admitting the king of the Sandwich Islands to the order would not finally be decided until the next meeting of the supreme lodge.

FIGHT WITH HORSE THIEVES.

Desperate Encounters, in Which Two of the Pursuers are Killed.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Aug. 3.—A special telegram to the Daily News from Craig, Mo., gives full particulars of the killing of Anthony De Long and Gideon Bostwick, Sheriff Denny, of Polk county, states that on Thursday, the 26th, a posse captured three horse thieves near Forest City. They were Con. and Fletcher Franklin and Harrison Stone.

The thieves were disarmed, but Fletcher, giving an excuse, went to his wagon and getting hold of a pistol, began shooting, the officers returning the fire. The shooting scared the officers' team, causing it to run away, leaving the officers without ammunition and powerless. Another posse was formed, and caught the thieves three miles northwest of Phelps, at a farm house.

Both sides promptly began shooting. The first shot from Fletcher Franklin struck De Long in the back part of the head. The second shot struck Gideon Bostwick in the right shoulder. The Franklins then started northwest, and succeeded in eluding the officers.

The sheriff followed a blind trail into Iowa, but can find no trace of the thieves.
He says Fletcher Franklin belonged to the old Jesse James gang, and is a deperate man. Parties are still scouring the country.

One Man Killed and Five Wounded.

CAIRO, Ill., Aug. 3.—The steamer Gondola took a negro excursion party down the Mississippi Sunday. At Hickman, Ky., several whites got aboard, one of whom got into a quarrel with a negro on the way down.
When the boat returned to Hickman, the affair broke out into a fight with knives and pistols, in which twenty-five or thirty men were involved, black and white. Five are wounded more or less seriously, and one died yesterday from the effect of his wounds.
The others are in a precarious state. All was quiet at last accounts.

Street Car Drivers and Conductors.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 3.—About fifty delegates are in convention in this city today for the purpose of forming a National organization of street car drivers and conductors. The meeting was called to order by H. G. Taylor, of Philadelphia, and Mortimer O'Connor, of New York, was chosen secretary. The purpose is to bind the various unions all over the country together.

Gored and Trampled to Death.

TUSCULA, Ill., Aug. 3.—Mrs. Fannie Hoyne, wife of James Hoyne, was gored and trampled to death by a mad bull, yesterday, while attempting to drive the brute out of the front yard. She fought the animal as her strength held out but no one came to her assistance she was killed before the eyes of her little children. The body was shockingly mangled.

A Small Failure.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—W. E. D. Vyse, the broker who could not be found to deliver stock yesterday, and for whose account $3,000 shares were sold out under the rule, this morning announced his inability to meet his contracts. His liabilities are small and the failure had no effect on the market.

Arrival of the Monmouthshire.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The steamer Mon-mouthshire, from China and Japan, with a cargo of the new crop of tea, consigned to Carter, Hawley & Co., arrived at Quarantine this morning. She left Yokohama in an ocean race with the steamer Glenshiel, which arrived here last week.

a farmer, living six miles west of this place, committed suicide by drowning himself in the canal. The coroner returned a verdict of death from cause unknown.

Destruction by the Bursting of a Dam.

READING, Pa., Aug. 3.—Grim's dam, covering two acres, near Boyertown, this county, burst through its breast, eighteen feet high, this morning, destroying everything in the vicinity.

Massachusetts Shoe Strike Settled.

BEVERLY, Mass., Aug. 3.—The trouble in the shoe shops has been settled, the manufacturers accepting the terms of the state board of arbitration. The lastors will be reinstated to-day.

Indian Chief Election.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 3.—The election for chief and other officers of the Cherokee nation passed off quietly yesterday. A special dispatch says the National ticket is thought to have to have been elected, but the vote was close.

Crops Refreshed by Good Rains.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 3.—Dispatches from various points in Kansas report heavy rains Sunday and yesterday. This will be of great benefit to the corn crop, which was badly in need of rain.

He Killed His Two Enemies.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 3.—Ike Medith, shot and killed John and Joe Evans, brothers in Faulkner county yesterday. He then fled. The killing is the result of a feud.

Freight Train Derailed.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 3.—This morning a freight train left the track on the Cincinnati Southern, near Donerail, delaying trains for over an hour. No one hurt.

The Earth Trembled.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 3.—A slight shock of earthquake was felt in Cincinnati at 12:30 a. m., but as most people were asleep, the phenomenon did not attract general notice.

THE NATIONAL CAPITOL.

ITS IMPROVEMENT BEING PUSHED VIGOROUSLY.

Comparison Made of Other Capitol Buildings—The Curse of Guiteau Being Tallified—Cleveland's Absence From the Capitol—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The improvements on the capitol here are progressing rapidly. To give the building a more imposing and beautiful west front, a marble wall is being substituted for the terrace, around the base, and two magnificent flights of stone steps, are taking place of the old wooden ones.
The wall is well under way and an idea of the effect may already be had.

"One flight of steps will be finished by contract, on the first of December," said Mr.
Edward Clark, the architect, recently, "and the other by the last of June following, or the end of the fiscal year."

"What is the estimated cost of the present improvements?"
"Three-quarters of a million dollars in round numbers," said he, as he went to a bookcase.

"How many rooms will there be in the new part?"

"There will be twenty-eight suitable for committee rooms, those lighted from the outside, and ninety-two which can be used for storage purposes. The idea was introduced some time ago of putting windows in the wall and thus lighting more of the rooms, but that was not done, as it was entirely contrary to the original idea. The walls were made to give the effect of a strong stone foundation, and if windows had been introduced this effect would not have been given. Rather the opposite."

"Will these improvements finish the capitol?"
"They will finish the authorized work, but in some future time the east front may be extended to give it more prominence.
As it is now the wings extend further out than the central building. But I expect it will be hard work trying to get the approval of congress to such 'needless' expenditure."

Our capitol is the largest, with one exception, in the world. The building which contains the parliament houses at Westminster is larger than ours, but the capitol is more beautiful. The capital is built on a terrace ninety feet high, and the parliament building is low down on the banks of the Thames. The capitol is surrounded by a great park, while the English building is in the business part of London and surrounded by commercial houses. The only thing in which the parliament houses surpasses the capitol is in size. Our building is 751 feet long and 339 feet wide and covers three and a half acres of ground, while the English capitol is 900 feet long and about half as wide and covers eight acres of ground.

The French legislative building is comparatively insignificant, and the new building for the reichstag of Germany, although covering as much space as our building, is built in the form of a square, and has not the appearance of being as large as the capitol.

Guiteau's Curse.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—After the assassin Guiteau had been convicted and sentenced by the court to be hanged for killing President Garfield, he stood up and pronounced a withering curse on every one connected with the trial. Since then four members of the jury have died, and nearly every one have been visited with some kind of misfortune. District Attorney George B. Corkhill was removed from office, his wife died and his own death followed shortly afterward. Mr. Scoville, Guiteau's brother-in-law, who, with Charles H. Reed, defended the prisoner, was divorced from his wife, and lost all of his property.

President Arthur, who refused to grant a pardon to Guiteau, slowly failed in health and died last winter. John A. Logan and David Davis, witnesses in the case, are dead.
Dr. D. W. Bliss, Garfield's physician, has been in very poor health, and it is thought that he will never be a well man again. The guards who kept watch over Guiteau in the jail have all lost their positions. Judge Cox, who presided over the trial, lost his wife.
The downward career of Charles H. Reed has culminated in an attempt at suicide.
The defeat of the Republican party in 1884, recalls the fact that Guiteau predicted its defeat.

Cabinet Meeting.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Although it was the regular cabinet day, the president did not come in from Oak View. Col. Lamont met the cabinet ministers in their room at the executive mansion, and after an hour's conference with them joined the president at his country seat where the temperature is much more pleasant than in the city, and where the president is fast catching up with his accumulated mail and other important work. Mrs. Cleveland and Mrs. Folsom having left here for the east, the president and Col. Lamont will for the present be the only inhabitants of Oak View.

The President's Wife.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Mrs. Cleveland, accompanied by her mother and aunt, left Washington very quietly yesterday afternoon. The ladies expect to visit friends at some of the summer resorts in Massachusetts, and will probably be absent from Washington some weeks.

Contract Awarded.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The secretary of the navy to-day awarded the contract for constructing new dry docks at the New York and Norfolk navy yards to J. E. Simpson & Company, of New York, for $1,061,810.

Counterfeit Dollar.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Secret Service Agent Porter got a new counterfeit silver dollar yesterday from a State street jeweler. It is a beautiful made coin, with faultless outlines, a proper weight and a deceptive ring.
Capt. Porter fears it may have a widespread circulation.

The Heat in Brooklyn.

BROOKLYN, Aug. 3.—Fifteen cases of prostration and three deaths were reported in this city to-day.

CONFESSED HIS CRIME.

The Mystery Surrounding the Murder of Mrs. Beall Finally Solved.

EATON, O., Aug. 3.—On the evening of June 16 this vicinity was thrown into intense excitement by the discovery that Mrs.
William T. Beall, wife of a farmer living about five miles from here, had been murdered. She was found lying face downward in a pool of blood that flowed from two bullet wounds in her head, and a terrible cut in the back of her neck. Two pistols and an ax lay near the body. It was strongly believed at the time that John Beall, aged thirteen years, son of the dead woman, had done the deed, and he was arrested and lodged in Eaton jail.

From the moment of his arrest up to the present he has appeared cool and obdurate and yesterday made a confession. He says that after his father and sister went to town he secured the two pistols and fired a ball into his mother's head. She didn't drop at the first shot, so he fired again. He then went out, got an ax and nearly severed the head from the body. He says his mother thought more of his sister than she did of him and that is why he killed her. The young fiend tells this story unconcernedly and with wonderful nerve, and says the only thing he misses about his mother is her "ordering him to do things." The confession is the all-absorbing theme of conversation and creates the most intense excitement. There were very few who did not believe him guilty, and yet the confession shocks everybody. There is no demonstration over the affair and there is no probability of any trouble growing out of it. The law will be given an opportunity to take its course.

Burned in a Gasoline Explosion.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 3.—During the festivities at the picnic of the Hodcarriers' union at Arsenal park last night, a gasoline lamp suspended from the ceiling of the dining hall exploded, scattering the burning fluid over a number of people. Miss Mary Jordan was burned about the side and back, and is in a critical condition. Miss Mary Willis is burned about the arms and back; Amanda Lindsey, burned about the hands and face; James Devine, face, head and hands burned; Henry Brooks, scorched about head. Miss Jordan cannot recover.
The others are seriously but not fatally injured.

Emancipation Celebration.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Aug. 3.—Emancipation day was celebrated here this afternoon by one of the largest gatherings of the kind which has ever been brought together in the state. Excursion trains were run from all sections of the state and from Toledo and other Ohio points. There was a grand street procession to the park, where interesting exercises took place. Ex-Governor Pinckback, of Louisiana, was the orator of the day, and Governor Luce, with the members of his staff; Governor Beveridge, of Illinois, and other well known men, occupied seats upon the stage.

Quiet at Morehead.

MOREHEAD, Ky., Aug. 3.—The night passed quietly as did the election yesterday.
Armed citizens patrolled the roads and many slept out on the hills all night. The detail from the Louisville legion, seventy-five strong, arrived with a Gatling gun and went into camp at the court house. These men were selected from the different companies on account of their personal valor, and a finer body of men never left Louisville. All is quiet, and to-day's developments are anxiously awaited.

Panic in a Church.

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 3.—While worship was progressing at St. John's Catholic church Sunday a Mrs. Steele, whose home is near by, rushed from her dwelling with her clothing in flames and somebody in the congregation shouted, "See the woman on fire." At the mention of fire the congregation was in an uproar. A wild rush for the doors ensued and many people were trampled upon and severely hurt. Mrs. Steele died soon after in great agony.

Terrible Accident.

CAMDEN, O., Aug. 3.—S. C. Koffer, living six miles east of here, on his way to town Monday morning, stopped at the mill, a short distance from the depot, and went in, leaving his little three-year-old boy sitting in the wagon. The horses took fright at something, ran off, and threw the child out, killing him instantly. He was taken to Dr.
Conna's office, and the inquest held, with a verdict as above.

Chautauque Assembly Opening.

CHAUTAUQUE, N. Y., Aug. 3.—The Chau-tauque assembly opened this morning under the most favorable auspices

WEDNESDAY EVE., AUGUST 3, 1887.

KENTUCKY Democracy is invincible.

Kentucky Democrats fought three parties last Monday, and defeated them all.

It will be a hotter day than last Monday when the Republicans carry Kentucky.

If the stay-at-home Democrats had all turned out Monday Buckner's majority would have reached 50,000.

The returns from Monday's election indicate that Kentucky may have a new constitution some of these days.

The Democracy of Kentucky can throw away a few thousand votes, and then have a handsome majority left.

The proposition to subscribe aid to the Kentucky Union Railroad Company was carried in Fayette County last Monday by 1,819 majority.

It is a noticeable fact that wherever a Democratic candidate for Representative was defeated last Monday by the Prohibition element the Republicans are blowing about it as a great victory.

The Daily Republican boasts of the Republican victory in Fleming. Seems to us that politics did not figure much in the fight up there. It was local option against whisky, and local option won.

A Bourbon County Democrat traveled three hundred miles to get to vote for Buckner and the rest of the ticket. If all Democrats were of that kind, Bradley would have been buried too deep for resurrection.

In Clark County the proposition to subscribe $150,000 to the Louisville, Cincinnati & Virginia Railroad was carried by a majority of 1,125. Estill County will vote on a proposition next Saturday, and Lee on the Saturday following. Great enthusiasm prevails in both these counties, and the proposition will carry. Work will be begun in sixty days, and the road will be completed to the Three Forks of the Kentucky River within one year.

The report that the famous Cook Humphreys had returned to Rowan County turns out to be false. It started from the fact that his brother, Gabriel, who resembles him closely, has been at Flemingsburg lately attending to some business matters. This brother is reported as saying: "Cook is traveling for a Memphis (Mo.) nursery firm, and is making money, and has no intention of returning. My brother is a gentleman; he has given his solemn word to stay away from Rowan County, and he is bound by every principle dear to any honorable man to keep that word. You may say for me that no possible contingency can arise to make him return. Interested parties are giving currency to the report for a purpose."

"All Men Are Liars," said David of old. He was probably prompted to make the above remark after trying some unreliable catarrh remedy. Had he been permitted to live until the present day, and tried Dr. Sage's Remedy, he might have had a better opinion of mankind. We claim that no case of catarrh can withstand the magic effects of this wonderful medicine. One trial of it will convince you of its efficacy. By druggists; 50 cents.

A Prize in the Lottery of life which is usually unappreciated until it is lost, perhaps never to return, is health. What a priceless boon it is, and how we ought to cherish it, that life may not be a worthless blank to us. Many of the diseases that flesh is heir to, and which make life burdensome, such as consumption (scrofula of the lungs), and other scrofulous and blood diseases, are completely cured by Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" after all other remedies have failed. Dr. Pierce's treatise on consumption mailed for 10c. in stamps. LATEST FROM ROWAN.

A Blood Red Flag Floats From the Nearest Mountain Top.

Judge Cole Opens up Court, but Adjourns Until To-day.

A special to the Lexington Press from Morehead last evening says: "Your reporter arrived here this afternoon in company with Judge A. E. Cole, Commonwealth's Attorney Salles, Z. T. Young and his son, Allie, together with seventy-five armed men with pistols, who got aboard the train at Farmer's Station, seven miles west of here. Upon arriving, Judge Cole and party, including the seventy-five men referred to, proceeded to the court house, where the Judge at once called the court to order, but as the grand jury did not report, he adjourned the court until to-morrow.

"Z. T. Young says that he has hidden the $1,462 worth of Springfield rifles he purchased, and that his men can get them at moment's notice.

"A blood red flag is floating from the nearest mountain top and its signal of blood has cast a shade of deep distrust on the citizens.

"Boone Logan says he is satisfied the present term of court will be nothing if not a farce, and just so soon as court is over he intends to leave the county forever.

"Z. T. Young says all he wants is protection for his boys and that he intends to have it.

"There is a very uneasy feeling here to-night on account of the seventy-five men who are the friends of Young and who are now quartered in the Central Hotel, which is the property of Young.

"Through all the apprehension and dread, Boone Logan is the same cool, watchful man, and it will be a cunning man indeed that gets the drop on him. Altogether the outlook for peace is anything but flattering, and before many hours there may be one of the bloodiest battles in this already blood-stained town that ever took place in Kentucky. The mine is already laid—it needs but a spark to fire it. That spark may be produced at any moment, and then another bloody chapter to relate."

Since the second day of June to the present date, August 2nd, the mercury has ranged from 95° to 104°, the most continuous and the hottest spell of weather ever experienced in this latitude. So says Brother Small, who is in his eighty-seventh year.

The election here passed off very quietly. No disturbance of any kind. Bar-rooms all closed.

The Presbyterian Church in this place is undergoing some needed repairs and alterations under the supervision of Charles Bell. Mrs. Nathaniel Roff, of Newport, is quite sick at her brother, S. H. Mitchell's, near this place. Mr. Roff was called to her bedside a few days since.

A Captain's Fortunate Discovery.

Capt. Coleman, schr. Weymouth, plying between Atlantic City and N. Y., had been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. It not only gave him instant relief, but allayed the extreme soreness in his breast. His children were similarly affected and a single dose had the same happy effect. Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy in the Coleman household and on board the schooner. Free trial bottles of this standard remedy at the drug stores of J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell, & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shephard, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is, now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c per box by J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

ELECTION ECHOES.

The State Still Democratic by a Comfortable Majority.

The Figures Placed a From 25,000 to 35,000.

RESULT IN MASON COUNTY.

Returns from Monday's election in this State are not all in, but the estimates still place Buckner's majority at from 25,000 to 35,000. One dispatch says it will not be less than 20,000 and it may reach 40,000.

The Democrats lose a Representative in Mercer, Lincoln, Muhlenburg, Fleming and a few other counties. In most every instance the loss was caused by the liquor question, the temperance Democrats, Republicans and Prohibitionists uniting against the regular Democratic nominee. Especially is this true as to the result in Fleming and Mercer.

The returns from this county are all in, and while the following are not official, the result will not vary much either way from the figures here given:

PRECINCTS.	MAYSVILLE No. 1	MAYSVILLE No. 2

'Squire Mastin, Prohibition candidate for Representative, got 150 votes in the county—54 of them at Sardis.

Dan Manns, Independent Republican candidate for Representative, polled a total of 21 votes.

Sardis is the banner Prohibition precinct of the county.

At Chester a vote on local option—unauthorized, though—resulted in a vote of 83 to 52 in favor of the traffic.

At Dover the vote for Constable resulted as follows:

James N. Wilson.....83
J. Scott True.....44

At Minerva the vote for Constable was as follows:

THE examining trial of Rogers Winn was called yesterday before Judge Coons, and continued till to-morrow until 10 o'clock. Mr. Winn executed bond for his appearance. The opinion seems to be general that the shooting was done under great provocation and in self defense.

A young cyclone struck the East End yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock, but did no very serious damage. The wind wrenched one of the wooden arches of the city bridge at Limestone Creek from its fastenings, but travel over the structure was not interfered with. A part of the roof at the Kentucky Central round house was torn off. The wind was accompanied by a heavy shower of rain.

THE State meeting of the Christian Church will convene in this city next Monday. Several hundred delegates and visitors are expected. In this connection we are informed that special rates for these delegates and visitors were secured on all steamboats, and all railroads except the Kentucky Central. The K. C. folks evidently want "the earth." The meeting will be to Maysville's interest, and Maysville people might teach the K. C. a lesson by doing their shipping and traveling on the steamboats for awhile.

JAMES G. BLAINE ABROAD.

WHAT HE IS THOUGHT OF BY THE PEOPLE IN ENGLAND.

His Visit Viewed in a Political Light.

Opinion of an English Politician—A Duel Necessary Between General Boulanger and M. Ferry—Other News.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Underneath the wining, dining and feting of Mr. James G. Blaine, both in England and Scotland, but particularly in England, there has been a current of feeling that is difficult to describe. Mr. Blaine is everywhere recognized as an exceedingly brilliant man and a desirable guest, but it is not easy in the minds of some persons to dissociate him from the enemies of England in America, who have kept Irish agitation and Irish aggression alive by furnishing them with means upon which to subsist.

During Mr. Blaine's brief stay in London several very prominent government officials concerned themselves to make his visit a pleasant one and their attentions were warranted by Mr. Blaine's past career and a possibility that he will again be a candidate for the presidency of the United States, but there is no doubt that he is looked upon very much askance even by those who made him the object of their courtesy, for they cannot forget that several of the extreme Irish-American journals in New York supported him during his campaign in 1884. Englishmen who consider themselves acquainted with the political situation in America are accustomed to mention the Democratic party with which the English-hating agitators in the United States are more especially connected, and are not surprised that its leaders should in a measure echo the war cry of a considerable portion of the rank and file; but that Mr. Blaine should be acceptable to some of the most active of the editors by whose efforts funds to sustain the Home Rule cause and even to promote the objects of the physical force branch of the Irish warfare against England are poured into Ireland induces a feeling of irritation against him and incidentally against the Republican party.

In conversation, a prominent English politician and member of parliament, said on this subject last evening: "The Americans did not shrink from spending countless millions of dollars and sacrificing hundreds of thousands of lives to preserve their country intact. The Republican party is credited with numbering among its adherents the most determined opponents of state's rights and inconsistency. I do not see how they can blame us for being equally resolved to sustain the integrity of our domains. Because we deny the right of the Irish to secede, the latter demand and appear to receive the sympathy of a nation that fought four years to put down secession. That those Americans who belong to the party which is credited with possessing the most extreme union sentiments and which is continually taunted by its opponents with perpetuating the memories of the war as a part of its political capital, should sympathize with our disunionists seems to me, to speak moderately, very inconsistent indeed."

The Anglo-Turkish Convention.
PARIS, Aug. 3.—M. Flourens, French minister of foreign affairs, in a circular sent out to French agents abroad after the rejection of the Anglo-Turkish convention says the convention had two bad points. First, the abandonment of part of the sultan's suzerainty to a Christian power, and, second, the absence of a specified date for the evacuation of the British. M. Flourens believes that if negotiations were to be renewed between England and Turkey it would be very easy to arrive at a useful result. France, he says, continues to desire a settlement of the Egyptian question according to the wishes of all the powers. The circular is noticeable throughout for the spirit of conciliation manifested.

A Duel is Necessary.
PARIS, Aug. 3.—The seconds of M. Ferry and Gen. Boulanger met last night and have decided that a duel between the two ex-ministers is necessary. The meeting will be arranged as soon as possible.
There is some difference of opinion among the Ferry-Boulanger seconds as to the manner of fighting the approaching duel. The friends of Boulanger propose, as is fitting for the representatives of the fiery general, that the participants of the duel shall fire at each other and shall continue so doing until one is wounded. M. Ferry's seconds decline to take part in any such bloodthirsty proceedings and modestly suggest that single shots shall be exchanged. In consequence of these diverging opinions all treatments on the subject have been suspended.

Another Austrian Helocast.
LONDON, Aug. 3.—The town of Sassow, in Galicia, has been destroyed by fire. Fifteen corpses have been recovered from the ruins. Twenty children are missing.

Republican Editors in Session.
SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 3.—A large meeting of Republican editors was held here this morning, following the meeting of the Republican state committee. About one hundred papers were represented. Ellis H. Roberts was chosen to preside. Mr. Roberts, on taking the chair, thanked the meeting for the honor conferred, and asked the question, "What are we here for?" and answered by saying that "we are not here for the offices." He said he was there to extend his acquaintance among the Republican editors and to gain wisdom. It was a saying of Gen. Grant's that everybody knows more than anybody in particular. Remarks were also made by a number of other editors.

Glass Workers' Troubles Ended.
PITTSBURG, Aug. 3.—The wages and working rules of the green glass blowers in the western district for 1887-8, have just been settled at a conference between the committee of the manufacturers and workmen. The wage scale, except in one or two instances, is the same as that in force during the last blast. One apprentice is allowed for every fifteen journeymen, and three-fifths of fifteen journeymen working for one firm during the blast. No firm is debarred from taking two apprentices during the season. The settlement insures peace in all the western factories.

Mysterious Killing.
NORTH O., Aug. 3.—At 11:30 yesterday night was helping thresh wheat at his farm. He was left to watch the engine the rest went to dinner and when he returned he found the body of his son lying in a gravel pit, horribly mangled and had been murdered and thrown

An Inflated Rubber Arrangement.
"Do you hear that?" said a young lady to her feminine companion, as a faint squeak, like a rusty hinge, emanated from her drapery; "that's the last new thing in bustles—an inflated rubber arrangement that will never go out with me again if I live to get home with it."

They were in a theatre, and every time she stirred, the movement was accompanied by unearthly breathings and festive snorts made by the inflated bustle. The companion smiled, and her friend turned on her indignantly. As she did so the patent bustle emitted something like a smothered scream. It seemed as if she couldn't move her hand but that dreadful bustle responded with some sort of noise, as though her ribs were creaking or her lungs were wrong.

"Shall I take a hat pin and prick it?" asked the other. "You will lose your figure, to be sure, but anything is better than this trouble."

"Oh, do," whispered she, and the bustle wailed like an agonized harp.

The friend removed her hat pin and plunged it in up to its jet head. As she drew it out there followed a shrill whistle. Perhaps the scene shifter heard in the wings and thought it was the prompter's call. Anyhow, they ran on a pair of flats painted to represent a garden scene, and the actress, who was just flinging herself on a sofa in the elegant boudoir, looked with horror on a fountain that seemed to be playing on a center table, and a spreading tree that suddenly hung over the chandelier.—New York Star.

New Game for City Children.

The Harlem children have a new game that they play on the steps of the 125th street station of the elevated. Both the up and down and down town passengers come down the stairs to the same landing, and then separate to go to the east or west stairways. The children divide up, choose stairways, and keep count of passengers who come from each train. One child is stationed at each side of the landing, and one at the head of the four stairways from the street. The side that has the most passengers uses its stairway wins.—New York Sun.

A Cyclone in Pennsylvania.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Aug. 3.—A special from Elmira, Pa., says: Between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon a terrific rain and hail storm and cyclone passed over the section south of this place extending through the edge of Deerfield township and Chatham. Grain was leveled to the ground and many forest and orchard trees were torn up by the roots. Great loss must have been sustained by farmers in the track of this devastating wind storm.
